

Privacy Notice

Kirkby Milers AC are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, Kirkby Milers AC is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure, and transparent way.

What personal data we hold about you

You may give us information about you by filling in forms at an event or online, or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise. This includes information you provide when you register with the Club. The information you give us may include your name, date of birth, address, e-mail address, phone number, name of other clubs with which you are registered and gender. We may also ask for relevant health information.

Why we need your personal data

The reason we need your Athletics Data is to be able to administer your membership and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member to provide the services you are registering for.

Reasons we need to process your data include:

For training and competition entry

- sharing personal data with club coaches or officials to administer training sessions
- sharing personal data with club team managers to enter events
- sharing personal data with facility providers to manage access to the track or check delivery standards
- sharing personal data with leagues, county associations (and county schools' associations) and other competition providers for entry in events

For funding and reporting purposes

- sharing anonymised data with a funding partner as condition of grant funding
- analysing anonymised data to monitor club trends
- sending an annual club survey to improve your experience as a club member

For membership and club management

- processing of membership forms and payments
- sharing data with committee members to provide information about club activities, membership renewals or invitation to social events
- club newsletter promoting club activity
- publishing of race and competition results

Marketing and communications (where separate consent is provided)

- sending information about promotions and offers from sponsors
- sending information about selling club kit, merchandise, or fundraising

On occasion we may collect personal data from non-members (such as any non-member participant who fills in a health disclaimer or form at a taster event). This information will be stored for 8 weeks and then destroyed securely. Our lawful basis for processing data is consent. Therefore, we will also need explicit consent from non-members to process this data, which we will ask for at the point of collecting it.

The club has the following social media pages Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. All members are free to join these pages. If you join one of the Social Media pages, please note that provider of the social media platform(s) have their own privacy policies and that the club do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data on the club social media pages.
